

Open that email

You see the link to “View My Maryland Insurance License”?

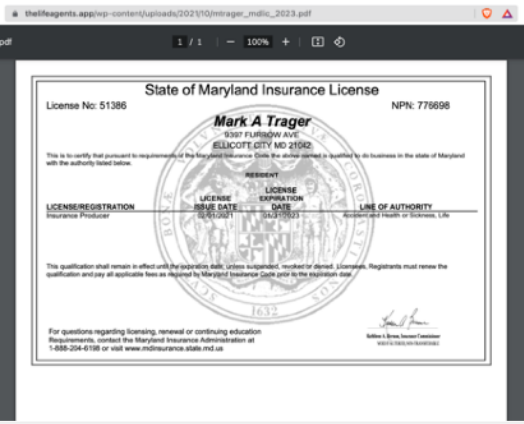

Go ahead and click that

You see my name, Mark Trager, Field Underwriter, and my Mobile Number

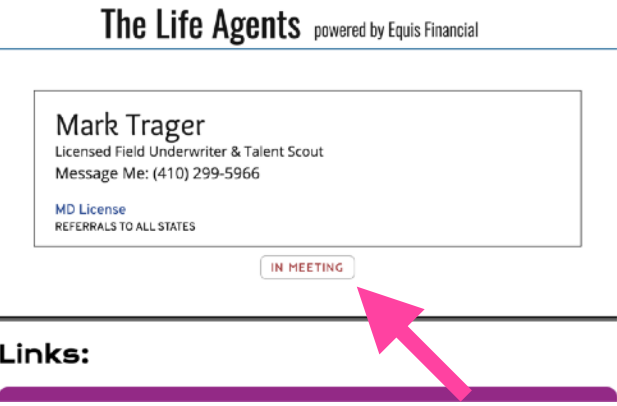

Under that, click “MD License” and that will open up to show you I am licensed by the state to help you with this

Links:

You can always access this from the email, I promise you won't need to contact the state insurance department, but you have my info if something came up

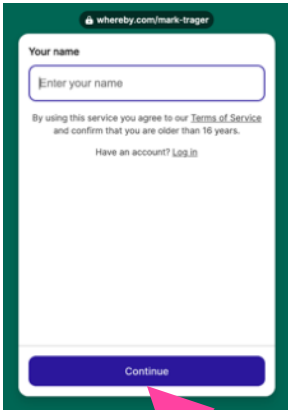

You can go ahead and close the license window

Now just below the box with my name and license, do you see where it says “In Meeting”?

Go ahead and click that

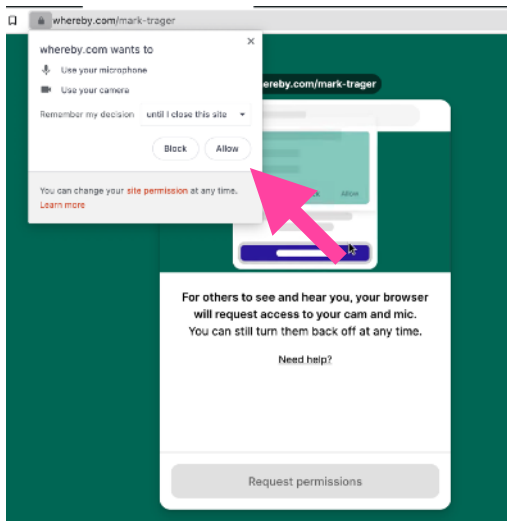

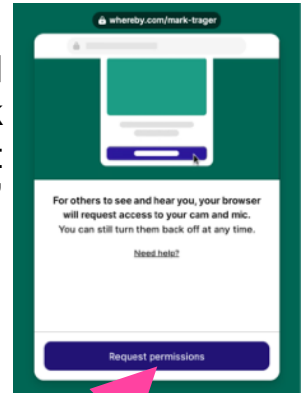

Links:

It asks for your name, you can leave that blank

Go ahead and click "Continue" at the bottom

Now go ahead and click "Request Permissions"

Now just click "Allow" And it will allow you to see me

Now Click "Knock" and I can give you access I need you to be able to see me
